Conference Dinner at French Pavilion of the Restaurant Alte Meister – 65 EUROS (Including food and drinks)

The online conference fee includes registration, online access to the program, the online paper sessions, the keynotes, the SIG8 business meeting, and to selected symposia, as well as access to the joint SIG8-16 events on August 26th, 2022. Furthermore, it will allow an asynchronous access to all the conference sessions that have been recorded over a period of at least four weeks after the closing of the conference.

The in-person conference fee includes in addition to the above mentioned conference parts, access to the on-site conference sessions (keynotes, symposia, joint SIG8-16 events, SIG8 business meeting), the coffee breaks and lunches, the welcome event. Furthermore, it will allow an asynchronous access to all the conference sessions that have been recorded over a period of at least four weeks after the closing of the conference. In addition, for all in-person conference delegates 4-5 rooms are available in which they can attend synchronously the online-conference sessions (e.g., if they have a poster or single paper to present, or want to attend the poster- and/or paper sessions that will be organized online).

Joint-Day online conference participation fee includes registration, as well as online access to the joint SIG8-16 events on August 26th, 2022. Furthermore, it will allow an asynchronous access to the records of the joint events over a period of at least four weeks after the closing of the conference.

Please note: The conference will be held under the then applicable rules and measures in Saxony and on our Campus to contain the spread of COVID-19. You can be requested i.e. to provide certificates of vaccination and/or recent testing. Distance rules and the obligation to wear a mask may apply at that time. It is indispensable to have a look at our conference page for an update on the hygienic measures when preparing for your visit to Dresden. We are not liable, if you do not observe the actual rules and therefore can't participate in the conference.

Conference fee cancellation policy

In case of cancellation before May 20th, 2022 an administration fee of 40% of the conference fee will be charged. After May 20th, 2022, there will be no refunds for cancelled registrations (see exceptions below for COVID-related cancellations). A cancellation has to be done by sending an e-mail to info@SIG8meetsSIG16-dresden.de, with attached a payment confirmation of the registration fees. The conference organization will then request the EARLI office to arrange the refund via the same method as used for payment. A transfer of registration to a colleague is not possible.

Change of conference attendance format

As there are still uncertainties due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we understand that you may need to change your plans. Thus, we accept changes concerning the conference attendance format before June 29th, 2022 with the following conditions:

- A change from in-person to online-format is possible – the difference in fees (50 Euros) will cover the respective administration and organization service.
- A change from online- to in-person attendance after the early registration deadline means more organizational load for us. Thus, this would mean that you would have to pay the late in-person registration fee (your paid early-bird online-registration fee will of course be taken into account).

COVID-related cancellation policy

- In case of institutional or government-imposed travel restrictions, you can change your conference attendance format from in-person to online up until 3 weeks (before August 3rd, 2022) before the conference start. Send a request to change presentation format to info@SIG8meetsSIG16-dresden.de with a payment confirmation of the registration fees and the applicable / up to date institutional or governmental regulations attached. If your presentation is part of a symposium, the conference organization will include your pre-recorded presentation in the respective symposium session. If your presentation is part of an online session it will remain in the session slot it has been planned for. Note that this exception applies only to institutional or government-imposed travel restrictions and excludes all non-governmental related travel issues. In case of the latter, the general cancellation policy applies.
- In case of an official positive COVID-test of an in-person presenter, send a cancellation request to info@SIG8meetsSIG16-dresden.de with a payment confirmation of the registration fees, your positive COVID-test result, and proof of identification attached. The conference organization will cancel your presentation and request the EARLI office to refund 40% of the paid registration costs via the same method as used for payment.

In all COVID-related cancellation cases, you will be able to attend the online accessible conference sessions online through the virtual conference venue. Furthermore, it will allow an asynchronous access to all the conference sessions that have been recorded over a period of at least four weeks after the closing of the conference.
